ALMA MATER

*All hail, dear Alma Mater,
We sing our praise to you,
High on Marye's Hilltop
You stand forever true;
Born in truth and honor,
You ever more shall be
The model of our future years
And all eternity.*

*Whene'er we have to leave you,
We never will forget
The lessons you have taught us,
And all the friends we've met;
And we your loyal daughters
Will hold your name on high,
So here's to Mary Washington;
Our love will never die.*

Irene Taylor, '47

Jean Crotty, '47

PRAYER FOR PEACE

READ BY

MARGARET HARGROVE, Dean of Students

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred. . . . let me sow love.
Where there is injury. . . . pardon.
Where there is doubt. . . . faith.
Where there is despair. . . . hope.
Where there is darkness. . . . light.
Where there is sadness. . . . joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek

To be consoled. . . . as to console,
To be understood. . . . as to understand,
To be loved. . . . as to love,
for

It is in giving. . . . that we receive,
It is in pardoning. . . . that we are pardoned,
It is in dying. . . . that we are born to eternal life.

Amen.

—St. Francis of Assisi

Gaudeamus Igitur ----- 13th Century Student Song

"Few Things More Enduring . . . "

There are few earthly things more beautiful than a university.
It is a place where those who hate ignorance may strive to know.
Where those who perceive truth may strive to make others see;
Where seekers and learners alike banded together in the search of knowledge,
Will honor thought in all its finer ways,
Will welcome thinkers in distress or in exile,
Will uphold ever the dignity of thought and learning
And will exact standards in these things.

They give to the young in their impressionable years
The bond of a lofty purpose shared,
Of a great corporate life whose links will not be loosed until they die.
They give young people that close companionship for which youth longs,
And that chance of the endless discussion of the themes which are endless
Without which youth would seem a waste of time.

There are few earthly things more splendid than a university.
In these days of broken frontiers and collapsing values,
When the dams are down and the floods are making misery,
When every future looks somewhat grim,
And every ancient foothold has become something of a quagmire,
Wherever a university stands, it stands and shines, Wherever it exists, the free minds of men, urged on to full and fair enquiry,
May still bring wisdom into human affairs.

There are few things more enduring than a university.
Religions may split into sect or heresy,
Dynasties may perish or be supplanted,
But for century after century the university will continue,
And the stream of life will pass through it,
And the thinker and seeker will be bound together
In the undying cause of bringing thought into the world.
